CRYSTAL SYMPHONY
WONDERS OF THE SOUTHERN SEAS

Wednesday, February 26, 2003

Greetings Antarctica and Australia Adventurers,

May I report positive news from some earlier unhappy news. Rolf Schneider, one of our Ambassador Hosts, who suffered a mild heart attack yesterday morning just prior to his departure home from the ship is doing well in a Santiago hospital. He is expected to return home to Dallas in a few days. Little to no damage was done to his heart. We wish him a speedy recovery and should any of you wish to send personal good wishes, please see me. Fellow Four-A's, Ursula and John Rigg, have been exceptional good samaritans with their concerns and good deeds on Rolf's behalf.

The Photo Albums were placed in your rooms last evening. I have extra copies should any of you wish an additional one.

John Mentis, besides being Crystal Symphony's "piano man" extraordinaire, is also our shipboard Videographer. He has assumed the duties of Jeff Walters who left the ship to take on a corporate project. Jeff will be returning in Australia to compile the footage and complete the 2003 World Cruise video.

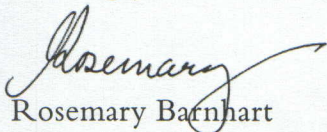

Meanwhile, when you see John out and about with his video camera, give him a big smile.....
you are on the "Crystal camera"!

Before signing off.....

Can you recall the following musical references from the heyday of the Great White Way?

- a) Though "a kiss on the hand might be quite continental," what should I always remember?
- b) "Round in circles I go." Under what circumstances?

Wishing you a restful and peaceful night,

Rosemary Barnhart

2003 World Cruise Hostess

On what occasion? – Johnny comes marching home.

To whom am I speaking? – I know I'm to blame, well ain't it a shame. Bill Bailey won't you please come home.

- c) "All up and down the whole creation, sadly I roam, still longing for the old plantation...."

and what else? – The old folks at home.
