

2003 World Cruise

CRYSTAL SYMPHONY
WONDERS OF THE SOUTHERN SEAS

Friday, February 28, 2003

Greetings Antarctica and Australia Adventurers,

Many of you have asked about Father Kidney. We have had no word from him since he left. However, when we hear from him I will be sure to place a note here in the newsletter. We are still expecting Msgr. Dennis Clark to come aboard in Easter Island.

Undoubtedly those of you who are interested have already attended the services of both Reverend Dale Johnson and Rabbi Morris Hershman. May I call your attention to the "Rap With The Rabbi" informal chats which take place many sea days at 11:00am in the Palm Court. As this session precedes Team Trivia, I have observed the lively discussions that take place and the many guests of all denominations that join in. This is the second year in a row that the Rabbi and his wife, Geri, have been a part of the entire World Cruise and we are very happy to have them with us again.

Fruhschoppen has been placed back on the schedule for tomorrow, March 1. It will be held on Deck 6 Aft (behind Prego and Jade Garden). This is not the easiest place to get to, so we will be meeting in Prego at 10:30am and guided to the aft of the ship in a group. Your invitation should arrive to your stateroom by this evening.

Before signing off.....

What effect do the following diacritical marks have on proper pronunciation; can you also describe their appearance?

- a) macron
- b) circumflex
- c) umlaut

Wishing you a restful and peaceful night,

Rosemary Barnhart
2003 World Cruise Hostess

Each of the following three phrases can be defined in two ways.

With the definition, can you identify the phrase?

- a) What would you call: an unheralded contestant or a saturnine equine? – a dark horse
- b) What would you call a final act or a cygnet's air? – a swan's song
- c) What are you if you are: most fortunate or pulchritudinally enthroned? – sitting pretty
