Greetings Antarctica and Australia Adventurers,

At stop at Pitcairn Island is always interesting, even for those of you who have been here before. We hope you enjoyed the shopping, the children, and conversations you had with the residents of the island.

Let me share in this newsletter a little humor from the Washington Post. Readers were asked to assign a gender to a noun of their choice and explain their reasons:

Ziploc bags – male, because they hold everything in, but you can see right through them.

Kidneys – female, because they always go to the bathroom in pairs.

Hot-air balloon – male, because to get it to go anywhere you have to light a fire under it.

Copier – female, because once turned off, it takes a while to warm up.

Swiss Army knife – male, because even though it appears useful for a wide variety of work, it spends most of its time just opening bottles.

Department Store – female, because it has more than three pairs of shoes.

Before signing off...

What am I doing if I:

- a) Check for hair in the gate?
- b) Lepidoptera, dorsal, mammary, and liberty?
- c) Execute a Cuban eight?

Wishing you a restful and peaceful night,

Rosemary Barnhart
