Wines

Krug Grande Cuvée Champagne

Made from the finest wines from the Marne district of Champagne, Krug Grande Cuvée is known throughout the world for its unique qualities of elegance, fine mousse and distinctive flavour. Skilful blending under the personal control of Henri Krug makes the Grande Cuvée an exceptionally harmonious champagne in the unique Krug style.

Gevrey Chambertin La Justice 1989

Gevrey Chambertin at the northern end of the Côte de Nuits is one of the great vineyards of the Burgundy area. The Pinot Noir grapes give this wine the typical notes of red berries. The colour is attractive and the maturation in oak has had a balancing effect. The 1989 vintage is well regarded, lighter in style than the 1985, thus resulting in an easy drinking and fruity wine.

Sterling Vineyards 1989 Sterling Reserve

With the 1973 vintage, Sterling began a tradition of saving the very best wines for a premier bottling, the Sterling Reserve. The 1989 Sterling Reserve is a blend selected from among 74 individual lots of wine and is made from 62% Cabernet Sauvignon, 28% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. The wine has flavours of currant and plum finely balanced with spicy oak, It has a rich texture with smoothly integrated tannins and demonstrates a lingering finish.

Vichon Napa Valley Chardonnay 1992

Napa Valley's 1992 growing season was excellent, being dry with moderate temperatures throughout. This resulted in the production of Chardonnay fruit with a natural balance of sugar and acidity. This 1992 Vichon Chardonnay was produced from hand-harvested grapes of the region's top vineyards. Aging in new French oak barrels contributed depth, richness and complexity to the wine. Tropical fruit aromas and flavours are complemented by a rich mouthfeel.

EBENEZER CHARDONNAY 1994
Ebenezer Chardonnay 1994

Ideal growing conditions in the Barossa Valley for the 1994 vintage resulted in a wine with great depth of varietal flavour and characteristics. The 1994 Ebenezer Chardonnay has an intense, soft yet rich palate balanced with subtle melon and oak flavours, and a clean crisp finish.

MEURSAULT
Meursault
Les Casse Têtes 1988

Produced from fine Chardonnay grapes grown on the rolling slopes of Meursault. This wine is characterized by a mellow, vinous aroma. The subtle flavours of hazelnut and wood are complemented by its greenish gold colour. This well balanced wine is one to savour and remember.
