Mark Twain Cave

Mark Twain wrote...

"By and by somebody shouted 'Who's ready for the cave?' Everybody was. Bundles of candles were procured and straightaway there was a general scamper up the hill. The mouth of the cave was up the hillside - an opening shaped like a letter A. Within was a small chamber chilly as an ice-house and walled by nature with solid limestone that was dewy with cold sweat."

-Excerpt from "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"

"No man knew the cave: that was an impossible thing. Most of the young men knew a portion of it and it was not customary to venture much beyond this known portion. Tom Sawyer knew as much of the cave as anyone."

- Mark Twain

You will have the same exciting experience as Tom Sawyer and Becky Thatcher did exploring this remarkable cave so many years ago. An experienced guide will escort you on the 55 minute circular tour. Persons of any age can easily make the tour. Walkways are level and smooth, no stairs to navigate, and the tour is completely lighted. Bring your camera, wear sensible walking shoes. A light jacket or wrap is suggested as the cave is a constant 52° - year round!

Learn the history of the cave and hear the stories of famous characters! You'll be intrigued by "The Eccentric and Creepy" Dr. Joseph McDowell and the "medical experiments" he performed in the cave... see where Jesse James' hideout was in the cave - we have proof! Did you know the Mark Twain Cave had a role in the Civil War? See where Artist Norman Rockwell was inspired and spooked by the cave... and learn the fate of "Injun Joe". These stories, along with the beautiful age old limestone formations, will definitely entertain the entire family and create life-long memories!

Cameron Cave

Located within the Mark Twain Cave Complex, Cameron Cave is one of Missouri's most recent cave discoveries. Located underneath the former Cameron Dairy property, the cave was discovered by the dairy owner, Arch Cameron in 1925. One day Arch saw steam rising out of a sink hole and started digging on a hot ledge. He then gathered an exploration party and eventually discovered this remarkable cave which is actually larger than the Mark Twain Cave. Guided lantern tours of this complex maze cave are given each day during the summer. Tours at other times of the year are given by appointment.

First Exploring Party
February 1925

Mark Twain Cave Complex boasts a beautiful campground with 99 campsites. There are a variety of sites to choose from. Some sites are shaded to help campers keep cool or read a book. Other sites are in sunny areas, which is great for those wanting optimum internet or cell phone reception.

We have a Club House and pavilions. Our Complex neighbors a family fun park right across the highway. For your convenience, we also have an area for campers to do laundry and a very nice camp store, Smallmart. There are club and individual rates along with discounted rates on multiple night stays. If you stay six nights the seventh night is free. Camping, hiking trail, wildlife, Mark Twain & Cameron Caves, other complex facilities...we work hard to make your life easy.
